STATION ORDER 8023.1

From: Commanding Officer
To: Distribution List

Subj: TEMPORARY STORAGE/REFUGE FOR MILITARY AND MILITARY-SPONSORED ATOMIC ENERGY, EXPLOSIVES AND HAZARDOUS MATERIAL SHIPMENTS

Ref: (a) NAVSEA OP 5 Vol I

1. Purpose. To provide instructions for the temporary storage of Energy Research and Development Administration (ERDA) Atomic Energy Shipments and the temporary refuge for military and military-sponsored shipments of explosives or hazardous materials covered by a Government Bill of Lading (GBL), or a GBL-annotated Department of Defense (DoD) Single Item Release/Receipt Document (DD Form 1348-1) for conversion to a GBL.

2. Information. Procedures dictate that a plan be developed for the temporary storage of ERDA shipments at DoD facilities to assure the safety and security of nuclear materials or non-nuclear classified materials in the event of civil disorder, natural disaster, and/or other emergency circumstances. Per reference (a), the Commanding Officer, MCAS Miramar may grant refuge for military and military-sponsored shipments of explosives or hazardous materials at the request of the carrier agent or representative, when such material is endangered by civil disturbance or natural disaster, or prevented from proceeding to its destination by circumstances beyond the control of the carrier.

3. Limitations. Facilities are available to afford safe haven to motor vehicles loaded with up to 40,000 pounds Net Explosive Weight (NEW) of Class 1, Division 1 high explosives or its equivalent.

4. Action

a. ERDA shipments:

(1) The Station Ordnance Officer will coordinate the temporary storage of ERDA shipments. Anyone receiving a request for temporary storage of an ERDA shipment at MCAS Miramar will immediately contact the Station Ordnance Officer at extension 7-1796, or after working hours, the Command Duty Officer (CDO) at extension 7-6989.

(2) In the event the ERDA shipment arrives by air, the shipment shall remain in the aircraft and the aircraft will be parked in the Combat Aircraft Loading Area (CALA). Air Operations shall notify the Provost Marshal, who shall notify the CDO at extension 7-6989. The CDO will inspect the security of the shipment at least once every 2 hours while ERDA shipments are stored at MCAS Miramar. The Provost Marshal will provide an armed security force of not less than two Marines to guard the aircraft.

(3) In the event the ERDA shipment arrives by truck, the shipment will remain parked inside the security fence at the station ordnance compound. Security will be provided by the Provost Marshal.

b. Military and/or military-sponsored shipments of explosives or hazardous materials:

(1) The Station Ordnance Officer will coordinate the temporary refuge for military and military-sponsored shipments of explosives or hazardous materials covered by a GBL.

(2) Anyone receiving a request for temporary refuge for military or military-sponsored shipments of explosives or hazardous materials at MCAS Miramar will immediately contact the Station Ordnance Officer at extension 7-1796 or after working hours the CDO at extension 7-6989.

(3) During working hours the Station Ordnance Officer shall notify the OD of the shipment. If the OD receives the request after working hours, the Station Ordnance Officer shall be recalled to coordinate the temporary refuge of the shipment.

(4) The Provost Marshal will direct vehicles accorded such refuge to the station ordnance compound, where they will be afforded safe haven. Security will be provided by the Provost Marshal's Office, if necessary.
